The central display screen shows a car's interior with a steering wheel and a gear shift. The interface includes various control elements for climate, seating, and navigation. The temperature is set to 18.0 degrees Celsius. The time is 14:54 on Thursday, July 4th. The screen also displays a battery level of 18% and a range of 115 km. There are icons for SOS, 5G, and a 360-degree camera view. The screen is framed by a dark bezel and is mounted on a light-colored dashboard. Below the screen, there is a horizontal strip of orange leather with white stitching. The car's interior is visible through the windshield, showing a green landscape.
